

Molasses Creek Selected Reviews

"The band's combination of harmony, humor, and love for the island they call home gives their work a distinct sound and vision." -- RL, Sing Out Magazine

"(Molasses Creek), is a rollicking trio that takes its audience on a whirlwind journey with every performance. Their love of both traditional and progressive bluegrass music is contagious." -- Miriam Sauls, Our State: Down Home in North Carolina

"In my fifteen years as Council director, I've rarely encountered a group so talented, flexible, and downright cooperative. Thank you for bringing us the happiest night of the year!" -- Bobbie Contino, Director of the Macon County Arts Council

"They exude sheer joy and talent when it comes to entertaining and more than that – they are delightful people. . . I hail them as a North Carolina Treasure." -- Laura Ward, Director, Davie Arts Council, Mocksville, NC

"I have no hesitation in recommending Molasses Creek as one of the great exemplars of the folk music tradition in the state of North Carolina" --Roberta Jones, President, Pamlico Music Society, Oriental, NC

"Ocracoke's Molasses Creek is taking audiences by storm." -- Margot Rochester, The Island Breeze, (Live concert review)

"Molasses Creek is at it again and the audience is loving it!" --Tom Yocum, The Sentinel, (Live concert review)

"After listening to all these masterly musicians....I'm wondering what's in the water down there on Ocracoke." -- Jon Harper, The Virginia Pilot

"Heartaches, headaches, laughter and tears are tied up in Molasses Creek's lyrics that flow like the sea that surrounds them." -- Victoria Cherrie, Max Magazine, (Live concert review)

"This recording captures the fun of playing bluegrass. It's like being in the corner of a pickin' parlor or on a front porch on a soft spring night, playing all your favorites with good friends." -- Linda Dailey Paulson, Dirty Linen ("Citybound" review)

"Brilliant, wonderful -- best release in many a moon!" -- Coastak Radio Shows, England ("Citybound" review)

"Truly one of the finest . . . They deserve a lot of airplay -- which they're gonna get!!" -- MG Radio, Netherlands ("Citybound" review)